The array of sports, technical and cultural clubs which the University supports stands as a testimony to this fact. Colosseum

“Thus so wretched is man that he would weary even without any cause for weariness... and so frivolous is he that, though full of a thousand reasons for weariness, the least thing, such as playing billiards or hitting a ball, is sufficient enough to amuse him. “ ~Blaise Pascal

A phrase that speaks for itself in this era of competitiveness. But yet again, hitting a ball is not enough to keep one happy. A strike on goal seems more appealing. Well, a shot on target does give you an adrenalin rush but what can outrun the thrill of winning?

We at SASTRA firmly believe that the urge to participate is just as important as the thirst to win. Colosseum includes seven games with more than 2500 participants from the diverse geographies of our country, with four days of endless games and sports. Colosseum has carved a niche for itself in the milieu of sports fests.
